Dear James,

I'm writing to you, for whatever it's worth, to tell you that you have earned my deepest respect and admiration. You know, I hope that you'll get this - although I don't expect an answer (I'd really love one though!) Anyhow, Marsha, who is my fiancée, feels the same way I do. If somehow the occasion ever presents itself, or something like that, both of us would like to meet you.
After watching a T. V. show on the Mississippi situation, I just felt that I had to do something immediately - so I wrote you. I don't know, maybe this sounds kind of "corny", but anyhow I just want to tell you that you've got the support of a lot of people up here - including many students like myself.

I hope someday we can meet, till that day, I wish you the best of luck in your studies.

Sincerely

Roger L. Zimmerman
